Madrid, Nov. 9.

THE Marquis de Bay having march'd into Eſtramadura, ſurpriz'd Moraleija, a Place ſtrong by its Situation, not far from Coria. The Portugueſe had put above 100 Men in it, who were kill'd or made Priſoners of War. Several Places adjacent were put under Contribution, and Oſtages were brought off, becauſe the Portugueſe have refus'd to pay the Contributions ſtipulated for ſaving from Pillage Portalegre, Caſtel de Vid, and other Places taken in the Campaign of 1704. 4 Regiments of Foot and 2 of Horſe are march'd from Andaluſia for Plaſencia, and are afterwards to joyn the Marquis de Bay; and then he will be able to reſtrain the Portugueſe from making Excurſions, and hinder them from getting Corn and Horſes from Eſtramadura, as they have done. The King has given the Duke of Alva his Ambaſſador at the Court of France, the Commanderie of Piedra-Buena: He has alſo given the Key of Gentleman of his Chamber to the Count of Sant Iſtevan de Gormaz, and to the Count de Bannos.

From the Paris Gazette, dated Dec. 4.

Madrid, Nov. 16. Yeſterday M. Eſcallart Captain of the Regiment of Dragoons of Pons, and M. Carol Captain in the Regiment of Crafton, arriv'd here yeſterday with 4 Colours taken at Daroca. They report, that the 6th Inſtant the ſaid 2 Regiments march'd from Molina, with 120 choſen Militia led by Don Juan Creſpo. The 8th they came before Daroca, and found all poſſible Diſpoſitions made for its Defence: There were in it 8 regular Companies, and the Inhabitants expreſs'd no leſs Reſolution than the Soldiers, when the Chevalier de Pons caus'd them to be ſummon'd to ſubmit to the King's Obedience. The Chevalier de Pons finding his Troops were well diſpos'd to the Enterprize, tho' they were inferiour in Number to the Beſieged, and having ſhew'd them that nothing could hinder them from approaching under the Walls, which were of no Defence, he caus'd them to advance notwithſtanding the great Fire of the Enemy. Aſſoon as they came to the Foot of the Wall, where they were no longer expos'd to the Fire, the Iriſh with extraordinary Bravery began to make a Breach with Pickaxes, and aſſoon as one Man could enter it, the Chevalier de Pons order'd the Captains Eſcallart and Carol to go in, and they being follow'd by others, kill'd thoſe who made Reſiſtance and would not throw down their Arms. Several Houſes were ſet on Fire; and tho' the Order given for exempting the Houſes of Eccleſiaſticks was religiouſly obſerv'd, yet ſome Eccleſiaſticks being found arm'd and endeavouring to rally the Rebels and animate them in the general Conſternation, their Houſes were alſo ſet on Fire for an Example. On this Occaſion only 27 Men of the King's Troops were kill'd and ſome wounded, among them M. Gibbon Lieutenant Collonel of the Regiment of Crafton. We have Advice, that the Enemy having put 2000 Engliſh or Dutch into Requena, the Militia of the Country waiting the Arrival of a Body of regular Troops, have block'd them up. The Duke de Bejar has preſented the King with 25 Horſe, all mounted and cloath'd alike. The Town of Luzena has furniſh'd 50 Horſe well mounted; Xerez de la Frontera has furniſh'd 4 Troops of Horſe; and the Town of Linarez 1.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated Dec. 10.

Paris, Dec. 3. The Night between the 1ſt and 2d Inſtant an Expreſs diſpatch'd from Spain by the Duke of Berwick arriv'd at Court, with Advice, That the 18th paſt Carragena ſurrendred, the Garriſon conſiſting of an Engliſh Regiment of Foot, 200 Horſe of the ſame Nation (moſt of them diſmounted) and ſeveral Hundred Peaſants being made Priſoners of War: That M. Mahoni Major General is made Governour of that Place, and General of the Troops that are to winter in Murcia; and that the Weather having been for ſome time very rainy and continuing ſo, the Duke of Berwick had ſeparated the Army with which he had reduc'd Cartagena, and ſent them into Quarters, deſigning however to draw them together agen the firſt fair Weather, to form the Siege of Alicant. The Duke of Vendome return'd to Court Yeſterday from Flanders. 'Tis ſaid that when the Miniſter of Sweden lately notified to the King the Concluſion of a Peace between his Maſter and King Auguſtus, he deliver'd a Letter from his ſaid Maſter, in which his Swediſh Majeſty aſſures our King, that he would not have concluded that Peace ſo ſuddenly, but only to make himſelf the more able to contribute by his good Offices to the procuring of a general Peace between the Chriſtian Potentates engag'd in the preſent War; adding that he offer'd his Mediation to his Majeſty for that purpoſe.

* The Length of the following Minutes of the Proceedings of the Parliament of Scotland on the Articles of the Union of the 2 Kingdoms, obliges us to refer ſeveral materiall Advices from Paris to our next.

Minutes of the Proceedings in Parliament, Wedneſday Nov. 27. Addreſs from the Shire of Midlothian againſt an Union Read. The 6th Article of Union with an addition of the Word drawback (to both Clauſes) read, and agreed to the ſaid Word. And the ſaid Article, as amended, again Read, and the Propoſal in the laſt Sederunt's Minutes, in relation to Oats and Oatmeal with this addition, And that the Beer of Scotland have the like Rewards and drawbacks as Barley. Mov'd, That the like premium or drawback on exportation of Oatmeal be allow'd as on the Exportation of Rye in England; and after debate agreed that the ſaid 6th Article and amendments be remitted to a Committee. Then the following Clauſe was offer'd, That Scotland for Years after the Union, be free from the Prohibitions againſt Exporting Wooll-Skins with Wooll, and Woollen Yarn, which ſhall no ways be comprehended under any of the Laws already made in England, or to be made during the ſpace aforeſaid. As alſo this Clauſe, viz. Excepting the Duties on Export and Import on particular Comodities, from which the Subjects of either Kingdom are ſpecially liberated and exempted by their private Rights,

Rights, and which after the Union are to remain intire. And the Clauſe, viz. That after the Union all ſorts of Scot's Linnen or any kind of Cloath made of Flax and Hemp be exported out of the united Kingdom free of Cuſtom or other Impoſition whatſoever. Another Clauſe, viz. That before the Union we may now have ſuch a drawback adjuſted as may enable us to export Beef, Pork, and Butter to the Weſt-Indies and other forreign Parts. And this Clauſe, That after the Union all Duties or County Tolls or other Exactions upon black Cattle or other Product of Scotland, when carried into England, or of England when carried into Scotland, payable either to the Publick or private Perſons, be in all time coming void and null. And another Clauſe in theſe Terms, That after the Union Scotland ſhall have Liberty for ever to manufacture Plaiden, Fingrum, Galloway Whites, Sarges, Stockings and all ſort of Linnen, as they have been in uſe to do conformable to the Regulations contain'd in their own Laws; and to export the ſame to England or Dominions and Plantations thereto belonging, or to any other Place beyond Sea, free of any Duty whatſoever. But in caſe any of the Subjects of Scotland ſhall export any other ſort of Woollen Manufacture than what is mentioned, they are to be liable to the Regulations and Taxes of England impoſed before the Union or to be impoſed. And it was agreed that all the Clauſes above inſerted ſhould be likeways remitted to a Committee. Moved, That the 6th Article, Propoſals and additional Clauſes be remitted to the Committee for examining the Calculation of the Equivalent, and agreed to. Moved, That a furder number of Members be added to the ſaid Committee, and it was put to the Vote add or not, and it carried add. Moved, That Two of each State be added; moved likeways that Four of each Eſtate be added, and after Reaſoning a Vote was ſtated add Two or Four, and it carried Two, and the next Sederunt appointed for chooſing them. Then the Seventh Article of Union read, and the reaſoning thereon delay'd till next Sederunt, to be proceeded on previous to all other Buſineſs, after chooſing the additional Members for the Committee. Then the Parliament was adjourn'd till to Morrow.

Minutes of the Proceedings in Parliament, Thurſday Nov. 28. The following Addreſſes were given in and read, viz. Addreſs of Heritors and other Inhabitants of the Pariſh of St. Ninians ſubſcribers of the ſame; and Addreſs of the Magiſtrates, Town-Council, Burgeſſes, and other Inhabitants of the Burgh of Dumbar ſubſcribing the ſame, both againſt an Union with England in the Terms of the Articles. Thereafter the Parliament (conform to the Minutes of the laſt Sederunt) proceeded to elect the additional Members to the Committee, to whom the 6th Article, Clauſes and Propoſals relative thereto are remitted. And the Three Eſtates having ſeparated to their uſual Places, they return'd and reported their reſpective Elections of the ſaid additional Members as follows, viz. Of the Nobility the Earls of Haddingtoun and Cromarte, of the Commiſſioners for Shires, Sir Gilbert Elliot of Minto, and Sir Thomas Burnet of Leys, of the Commiſſioners of Burghs, Sir John Erskine and Sir Patrick Halket. And the Committee was appointed to meet in the inner Seſſion-houſe to morrow at Nine of the Clock in the Forenoon. Then the 7th Article of Union was again read, and after ſome reaſoning a Propoſal was made for an Explanation and Addition in theſe Terms, That the 34 Gallons Engliſh Barrel of Beer and Ale amounting to 12 Gallons Scots preſent Meaſure, ſold in Scotland by the Brewer at 9 Shillings and 6 Pence Sterling excluding all Duties, and the Retail including Duties and the Retailers Profit at 2 Pence the Scots Pint or Eighth Part of the Scots Gallon, be not after the Union liable on Account of the preſent Exciſe upon exciſeable Liquors in England to any higher Impoſition than 2 Shillings Sterling upon the foreſaid 34 Gallons Engliſh Barrel being 12 Gallons the preſent Scots Meaſure. And another Clauſe being likeways offer'd in theſe Terms, and it is hereby ſpecially provided that the 2 Penny Ale and Beer of Scotland ſhall be only charged with the ſame Excile of the ſmall Beer of England. After ſome Debate the Vote was ſtated approve of the 7th Article as to the Exciſe of Ale and Beer with the Explanation contain'd in the firſt or laſt Clauſe above inſert, and thereupon the ſaids Clauſes being read, it was agreed that the Members ſhall be marked as they vote, and that a Liſt of their Names as they vote firſt or ſecond ſhall be printed. Then the Vote was put approve with the firſt or ſecond, and it carried firſt. Then the Parliament was adjourn'd till to Morrow.
